No Child Left on Bus Duty

Robinvale College requires all staff who drive the bus or supervise students on the bus to perform the school's No Child Left on Bus Duty (NCLB Duty).

Robinvale College will incorporate the NCLB Duty in staff driver training, including how to conduct and record post-trip bus inspections to ensure no child is left on the bus.

The NCLB Duty for staff comprises the following:

- A roll of children travelling on a bus trip is provided by the school to the driver (or supervising staff member if present).

Before each trip/leg of bus travel:

- The driver (or supervising staff member) will check off the students on the roll to confirm that all students listed on the roll have boarded the bus before departure.

After each trip/leg of bus travel:

- At the end of the trip/leg, the driver and/or supervising staff member will walk the full length of the bus, inspecting on and under seats to check that no students remain on the bus after the students have disembarked the bus.
- The driver and/or supervising staff member records on the roll that the bus has been checked and that all students have disembarked the bus.

Robinvale College will keep the bus rolls on file in a secure location at the school as a record that all children boarded and disembarked the bus at the correct location/s, and that the bus was inspected to ensure no child was left on the bus. The bus rolls will be retained for 5 years as per the department's records management policy.
